

Ecumenical Women

at the United Nations

Needs to hear from you!

Church offices at the United Nations are trying to gather information from women all over the world about the situations facing women and girls in rural areas. This information will be used to advocate at the United Nations for better policies which will truly reflect your community's assets and needs. We need to hear from YOU!

Please respond by August 1, 2011

Email directly to ecumenicalwomen@gmail.com or give/send/email to your Church contact.

Your answers to these questions are completely private. Ecumenical Women will not share your identity with anyone else. For the purposes of our recordkeeping, please tell us

The name of your town:

The name of your country:

In all of your answers, we invite you to consider religious beliefs, local laws, national laws, international aid organizations and their expectations, women's education/training, and other areas.

In your community, how does an empowered woman act?

What dis-empowers you?

How are women working and/or organizing in your community to combat hunger and poverty?

What would help women better address hunger and poverty?

What has not been helpful?

What do the following look like?

Good development:

Bad development:

What other challenges are you facing?

Are there any other things you'd like to share with us?